

MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION (BILH)

To successfully lead in the increasingly complex world of health care, you need to develop a solid framework for decision making that employs broad-based understanding of the many perspectives across the organization. Bentley University is proud to partner with Beth Israel Lahey Health (BILH) to bring a highly customized MBA program to equip BILH leaders with the skills they will need to meet the complicated challenges faced by healthcare organizations.

The BILH MBA is a cohort-based program available to BILH employees upon application. More information can be found at Bentley University MBA at BILH (<https://www.bentley.edu/graduate/bilh/>).
