Learning Labs

Bentley Learning Labs

At Bentley, students have the opportunity to become fluent in the latest technology tools. Bentley's learning labs are state-of-the-art facilities equipped not only with cutting-edge technologies, but also with caring and experienced staff who provide personalized instruction and one-on-one support to help students gain the confidence and skills to succeed in and out of the classroom. See more at Bentley Learning Labs (<https://www.bentley.edu/academics/learning-labs/>).

Film and Media Studies Lab

The Film and Media Studies Lab supports the English and Media Studies Department's Film and Media Studies Major (catalog.bentley.edu/undergraduate/programs/arts-sciences-programs/ba-degree-programs/media-culture-major/) and the joint Creative Industries Major (catalog.bentley.edu/undergraduate/programs/business-programs/creative-industries-major/). This state-of-the-art facility provides resources for all forms of media production: video, sound, digital photography and design. The labs house industry-standard software for video editing, screenwriting, sound mixing, animation, as well as graphic and motion design. The professional production tools available include digital and 4K cameras, lighting and grip equipment, microphones, and audio accessories. A soundproofed studio with green screen and lighting grid completes the professional production environment. Students are encouraged to visit the labs and studio in Lindsay Hall.

Centers

Bentley's academic centers bring faculty, staff, and students together with external partners from the business world and community to collaborate and share ideas, from scientific breakthroughs and business ethics to digital design and workplace diversity. Students feature prominently in the success of the centers. Whether conducting their own research or assisting with faculty-led projects, they benefit from hands-on learning in real-world working environments. Learn more at Bentley Academic Centers (<https://www.bentley.edu/academics/centers/>).

Academic Skills Assistance

Each semester, the Office of Student Success (<https://www.bentley.edu/offices/academic-services/>) offers academic skills workshops designed to help students with study skills. Time management, procrastination, active reading, goal setting, course navigation, test preparation, and test taking are among topics covered. Individual assistance is also available through Student Accessibility Services (<https://www.bentley.edu/offices/disability-services/>).

Peer Tutoring Assistance

Beyond the Learning Centers, one-on-one peer tutoring is available through the Office of Student Success (<https://www.bentley.edu/offices/academic-services/>) for undergraduate students who need longer-term and more intensive assistance in their courses.
