MARKETING MAJOR (B.S.)

Every organization, regardless of whether it is a for-profit, nonprofit, corporate, or government organization, engages in marketing activities. At its core, marketing is ultimately focused on facilitating exchanges that have positive value for everyone involved. Bentley's marketing faculty have won numerous teaching and research awards because they develop courses and research ideas that are at the cutting edge of the constantly changing marketing landscape. The curriculum provides students with the theoretical background and practical experience to start their careers, but also to build their successes as their careers progress. Real-world projects and internship-for-credit courses, where students work and gain experience with leading organizations such as Apple, Microsoft, TJX Companies, the Boston Celtics, and the Boston Red Sox, ground their education with solid, real-world experience.

A marketing degree can lead to many career paths in areas such as marketing analytics, brand management, social-media marketing, marketing research, retailing and fashion, sales, advertising and promotion, international marketing, sports marketing, and new product development.

Marketing major requirements are flexible. Students can choose a General Marketing Concentration (p. 2) consisting of four required courses that provide the vital grounding in marketing concepts necessary for all marketing fields, along with four elective courses of their choice, which allows students the opportunity to tailor the curriculum to match their career goals. Alternatively, marketing students can choose a Digital Marketing Concentration (p. 2) consisting of the same four required fundamental courses as above, plus Digital Marketing, Digital Marketing Analytics, Al and Marketing, and one additional elective.

For further information about degree requirement policies and guidelines, see the Degree Requirements (catalog.bentley.edu/undergraduate/degree-requirements/) page.
