

MINOR IN HISTORY

The Minor in History offers students the opportunity to deepen their understanding of the past and to broaden and sharpen their focus on the present. Students can apply these to any occupation that calls for independent judgment, clear reasoning, and an appreciation for the way the world works.

For further information about policies related to minors, see the Program Policies (catalog.bentley.edu/undergraduate/degree-requirements/#minorspolicies) page.

Students are encouraged, but not required to explore a particular theme in History. Possible examples of themes are below. See the department chair for more details.
